Parents and adults raising toddlers, children and/or teens:

Join us for an uplifting night of connecting around the triumphs and challenges of parenting. This is not a parenting class; instead it is an adults-only opportunity to share your experiences, learn from others and recharge.

These events are free and open to parents and caregivers who are both members and non-members of the YMCA.

For more information, please email coordinator@sjccares.com, or call or text 574-202-2754.
